Re: Crystalline Silicon Photovoltaic Cells, Whether or Not Assembled into Modules, from the People’s Republic of China: Request for Administrative Review

Dear Secretary Pritzker:

On December 3, 2013, the Department of Commerce (“the Department”) published its notice of opportunity to request an annual administrative review of antidumping or countervailing duty orders, findings, or suspension agreements which have a December anniversary month. On behalf of SolarWorld Industries America, Inc. (“SolarWorld”) and pursuant to section 351.213 of the Department’s

1 See Antidumping or Countervailing Duty Order, Finding, or Suspended Investigation, 78 Fed. Reg. 72,636 (Dep’t Commerce December 3, 2013) (opportunity to request admin. rev.) (the “Notice”).

regulations, SolarWorld hereby enters its appearance and requests an administrative review related to the above-referenced countervailing duty order, for the period from March 26, 2012 through December 31, 2012. SolarWorld was petitioner in the original countervailing duty investigation and is a domestic interested party pursuant to 19 C.F.R. § 351.102(b)(17) and 19 U.S.C. § 1677(9)(C).

This request is for the review of the countervailing duty order on crystalline silicon photovoltaic cells, whether or not assembled into modules, produced or exported by the following entities and/or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, whether directly to the United States or indirectly through any third country:

1. Aiko Solar

SolarWorld requests review of these entities because it believes that these producers and/or exporters received government subsidies during the period of review, and that any estimated cash deposits being collected on imports of subject merchandise from these manufacturers or exporters understate the degree of subsidization that occurred during the period of review.
SolarWorld will serve a copy of this administrative review request by personal service or first class mail on each exporter or producer specified above (or their counsel). 4

Please contact the undersigned with any questions concerning the above or the attached.

Sincerely,

Timothy C. Brightbill, Esq.

REPRESENTATIVE CERTIFICATION

I, Timothy C. Brightbill, with Wiley Rein LLP, counsel to SolarWorld Industries America, Inc., certify that I have read the attached submission of Request for Administrative Review, filed on December 31, 2013, pursuant to the 5/25/12 - 11/30/13 administrative review period under the antidumping duty order and 3/26/12 - 12/31/12 administrative review period under the countervailing duty order on Crystalline Silicon Photovoltaic Cells, Whether or Not Assembled into Modules, from the People’s Republic of China, Case Nos.: A-570-979 and C-570-980. In my capacity as counsel of this submission, I certify that the information contained in this submission is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge. I am aware that U.S. law (including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. § 1001), imposes criminal sanctions on individuals who knowingly and willfully make material false statements to the U.S. Government. In addition, I am aware that, even if this submission may be withdrawn from the record of the AD/CVD proceeding, the U.S Department of Commerce may preserve this submission, including a business proprietary submission, for purposes of determining the accuracy of this certification. I certify that a copy of this signed certification will be filed with this submission to the U.S. Department of Commerce.
